But, isn't using the Bible to prove the Bible, circular logic?

Let's briefly depart from our regular Bible verse exploration to address this concern. Consider the following:

↑ PROPHECY HAS COME TRUE

Without fail, Bible prophecies have happened exactly as outlined. Predictions made hundreds of years prior to their fulfillment provide solid evidence of divine inspiration!

↑ IT HAS A COHESIVE STORYLINE

Many different authors wrote the Bible over hundreds of years, yet there is a consistent, common-threaded and ever-clarifying story. This strongly indicates a common inspirational source.

↑ IT TESTIFIES OF A HIGHER POWER

Everytime you read the Bible, something new can be learned. Its sound advice, proven wisdom and timeless concepts testify of superior authorship.

↑ ARCHAEOLOGY VERIFIES BIBLE RECORDS

Archaeologists continue to uncover more and more evidence to verify Bible records.

↑ HISTORICAL WRITERS CONFIRM STORIES

Reputable historical writers from various time periods confirm Bible stories.

↑ IT CHANGES LIVES

Bible reading affects the conscience and changes lives. A personal experience thus gained presents powerful evidence of a higher power and renders confidence in the promises contained in the Bible.

But, aren't there discrepancies and inaccuracies in the Bible. How can I trust it?

① CONSIDER SCIENCE: The "science" of one decade is often proven totally incorrect in the next. Time after time, perceived discrepancies in the Bible have later been proven unfounded as more information is uncovered. ASK YOURSELF: How much trust should I place in human wisdom? Should I believe something only after science has proven it?

② CONSIDER THE SCRIBE: There are a few instances when a scribe made a mistake copying the text. Earlier manuscripts discovered in more recent times have shown that the mistakes are very limited and do not affect the theme or message of the Bible. ASK YOURSELF: If a scribe made a mistake, does that make the original message faulty?

③ CONSIDER TRANSLATION: A translator could mistakenly use an incorrect word. ASK YOURSELF: Has the meaning of a word changed since my version of the Bible was written? Have I looked up the original word in a Hebrew or Greek dictionary?

④ CONSIDER THE CONTEXT: Some words in the Bible are simply accurately recording an event. For example, the advice given by Job's friends was not inspired, however, the writer was inspired by God to faithfully record the story so we can learn from it today. ASK YOURSELF: Have I investigated the source of the subject and the context of the text?

⑤ CONSIDER HUMANS: Humans are prone to misinterpretation of scriptures due to reliance on self and lack of thorough investigation. ASK YOURSELF: Have I studied what other parts of the Bible teach about this subject? Have I prayed and asked for the Holy Spirit's guidance?

► Examine Prophecy

What prophecies in the Old Testament did Jesus fulfill?

There are over 300 predictions in the Old Testament concerning Christ. What are the prophecies of the World Empires?

How could anyone look ahead twenty-five hundred years and predict the status of the nations of western Europe? Only God, who knows the future, could accomplish this. This gives us additional proof that the Bible is the inspired word of God. Read Daniel chapter 2. It prophesies of the World Empires that would rule from that time until Christ's second coming. From history, we know that there were four world empires. They are listed below. Write the things from Daniel's vision that represent each kingdom.

 (476 AD to Christ's 2nd Coming) Represented by: _____

Empire #5 = Christ's Kingdom (Lasts for Eternity) Represented by: _____

What do prophecies reveal that I will hear and see in the last days?
