Halloween worksheets can be used in the classroom or at home to teach math, vocabulary, and listening skills to children of all ages. They'll make learning more fun and are a nice break from the everyday worksheets. These worksheets are all free to print. In a matter of a few minutes, you'll have a fun and free educational activity all ready to go. There are Halloween-themed worksheets for math, puzzles, bingo, reading comprehension, writing prompts, and trivia. No matter what the age of your students, you should be able to find some free worksheets that they'll enjoy. Tim Hall/Cultura/Getty Images These Halloween worksheets are all about teaching children math in a fun way that has them counting pumpkins and subtracting ghosts. Mix up some Halloween fun and math facts into your cauldron and your children or students won't be able to resist. These worksheets reinforce number recognition, counting, skip counting, addition, subtraction, multiplication, division, word problems, patterns, algebra, and geometry. Jacob Wackerhausen/E+/Getty Images WorksheetsPLUS has several free Halloween worksheets that are passages followed by questions about the reading. You can print these or let the kids take the quizzes online for immediate feedback. These worksheets are recommended for children in 2-4 grades. Answers are provided. There are also some other Halloween worksheets here that cover counting, rhyming, grammar, and more. Jutta Klee / Getty Images The Holiday Zone has some great writing prompts and story starters for Halloween. These will really get the kids thinking and imagining. Make answering these writing prompts even more fun by pairing them with some free Halloween writing paper from Teachers Pay Teachers that they can use to answer the question or tell their story. Kinzie+Riehm/Image Source/Getty Images Trivia Champ has an impressive collection of Halloween quiz worksheets that you can print as a PDF or even play as an online game. These Halloween worksheets include trivia over ghosts, werewolves, vampires, Halloween movies, candy, monsters, around the world celebrations, and more. All the answers are provided at the end. mediaphotos / Getty Images If you're looking for something a bit different, you'll want to check out these free, printable Halloween music worksheets from My Fun Piano Studio. They use Halloween songs to help children read music and learn notes. filmstudio/E+/Getty Images Teachers Pay Teachers has thousands of Halloween worksheets that you can print for free. You'll find worksheets over math, language arts, foreign language, art and music, science, and social studies. You can narrow down your search by filtering by grade level and subject. Sorting options include rating, popularity, and date. Katarzyna Bialasiewicz/Getty Images Here you'll find Halloween worksheets as well as classroom and bulletin board decorations, lesson plans, reading books, book units, board games, printables, and lots of fun Halloween activities for preschoolers up to middle schoolers. Christmas lessons and activities are great motivational techniques. Some of the best activities in an inclusional classroom include brainstorming activities. When you provide students with the opportunity to brainstorm, you are actually using differentiated instruction. Brainstorms work well for gifted learners, mainstream learners and disabled learners. Use the Printable Activity PDF or try some of the suggestions below. 1. How many different Christmas words can you think of? 2. How many different things can you put on a Christmas tree? 3. What realistic types of gifts do you want this year and why? 4. How many different things can you do on the Christmas holiday? 5. How many different foods can you think of for Christmas? 6. Why is Christmas special to you? 7. How many different Christmas songs can you think of? 8. How many words can you find using only the letters in the word Christmas? 9. List all your different memories of Christmas. 10. Think of all the different things that happen at your house at Christmas. (Types of decorations, visitors etc.) Brainstorms can be in writing or done in small or large groups in the classroom. All students have the chance to feel successful during brainstorm types of activities.
