WEEKSNEWSLETTER Try using these free and printable Beginning Sounds worksheets when you start teaching your child how to read. There are twenty worksheets that you can use to cover a series of letter mixes and digraphs (unique sounds). How the worksheets work Each worksheet contains six words that begin with a common combination of two letters. The worksheets allow you to read every word to your child and with the practice, they should be able to recognize the two-letter combination and if fading words say it as a sound, not two. 14 blends to practice – There are 14 worksheets covering mixtures. Mixtures occur when each letter can be heard in a specific tone. In the word frog, the mixture appears fr. In the /fr/sound, both the f- and r-sound are Hear. The combinations: BL, BR, DR, FL, FR, GL, GR, PL, PR, SM, SN, SP, ST and TR are all mixtures. 6 digraphs to practice - There are 6 worksheets covering digraphs. Digraphs are created when two letters form a unique sound. In the word Phone, the digraph ph appears. The letters p and h are combined to form the /f/sound. Digraphs cannot be explored. Your child needs to recognize these combinations of letters and the unique sounds they make. The combinations: CH, KN, PH, QU, SH and TH are all digraphs.
