Home Education Study in Korea South Korea has increasingly been attracting international students into their undergraduate, graduate and research programs. There are about 400 national and private universities and some universities have state-of-the-art research facilities in several emerging scientific fields. The academic year starts in March. Prospective students should start making preparations one year prior to the intended time of arrival. Tuition fee varies depending on the university and national universities are cheaper than privet universities. There are two types of Visas you can apply for to study in Korea D2 (Overseas Studies)o Undergraduate Studieso Graduate Studies D4 (Korean Languege Training)o Korean Language Training- This is only applicable for general Korean language training conducted by the universities or language institutes in Korea. The following documents are required to apply for D4 and D2 visas 1. A passport size photograph of the applicant taken within the last six months with Visa Application.2. Letter from the applicant giving details as to why they are interested in learning the Korean language including the study plan.3. Original letter of Admission with payment receipt from Korea together with business registration of the University.4. Local money transaction documents (payments for the Korean University)5. Bank statements for last three months with the current balance confirmation letter from the Manager (please attach copies of the monthly statements/savings book)6. Academic certificates and student record with photo copies.7. A photocopy of the personal details page of the applicant's passport & a copy of both sides of the Identity Card and Birth Certificate.8.
