

Name _____

Hanukkah

Hanukkah is an exciting time of year - the Jewish festival of lights! Last year, I celebrated it with _____ (name of friend) at his/her house.

The day was a little strange though. We were eating fried food, but the food in the frying pan had all turned into _____ (slimy bug) and _____ (creepy crawly) instead!

It was put onto my plate, and one of the _____'s (slimy bug) opened it's mouth and started singing '_____ (choose a song you know)' really loudly. It sounded awful, like a _____ (a gardening tool) scraping against a _____ (something made of brick)!

I got up from the table and ran to the _____ (room in the house), screaming the words "_____ (a popular phrase)" at the top of my voice.

_____ (your friend) came after me and asked "What is wrong?", to which I answered: "I don't want to eat _____ (slimy bug) and _____ (creep crawly)!" _____ (your friend) led me back to the table, and I noticed there were no insects at all - only a delicious plate of hot _____ (your favourite fried food)!

It must have been my imagination after all! But was that a _____ (slimy bug) I noticed sliding away from my plate..?
