It is suitable for primary school and older SEN students due to the very visual nature of the resource. The PowerPoint explains the rules for making plurals for: regular nouns - adding 's' nouns, which end with 'ch', 'sh', 'x', 'ss', 'x', 'z' and 's' nouns ending with 'o' nouns ending with 'f', 'ff' and 'fe', ending with 'y', are pre-set with a consonant nouns ending with y, which is sometimes the plural. For words ending in y there is a simple rule for changing these words to plural form: if the y follows a consonant then change the y to i and add -it. If the y follows a vowel, add -s. For this worksheet activity, students write the plural form for the nouns and verbs. Advertisement.EnchantedLearning.com is a user-supported Web site. Little ExplorersPicture Dictionary Dictionary Writing activities plural noun If you refer to more than one noun, use the plural form of this noun. The plural of a noun is usually formed by adding a s at the end of the word. For example: the plural of cats is cats; the plural of the flower is flowers, and the plural of the computer is computer. When the word ends in s, x, z, ch, or sh, the plural is usually formed by adding 'es'. This is because you need to add an extra syllable to the word when you add a s at the end of those words to pronounce it. For example: the plural of the boss is boss, the plural of the box is boxing, the plural of the buzz is buzz, the plural of lunch is lunch, and the plural of brushes is brush. Not all plurals end in 's' or 'es'. Irregular nouns are those that do not use the regular plural ending. Below are some irregular plurals.
