Possessive Nouns

A noun that shows ownership is a possessive noun.

To turn a singular noun into a possessive noun, add an apostrophe (') and an - s.

On the line write the possessive form of each underlined noun.

1.	the drawers of the desk	the	_ drawers
2.	the dreams of a man	the	_ dreams
3.	the barks of a dog	the	_ barks
4.	the leaves of a tree	the	_leaves
5.	the petals of a flower	the	_ petals
6.	the mane of a lion	the	_ mane
7.	the buzzing of a bee	the	_ buzzing
8.	the purr of a kitten	the	_ purr

ANSWER KEY

Possessive Nouns

A noun that shows ownership is a possessive noun.

To turn a singular noun into a possessive noun, add an apostrophe (') and a - s.

On the line write the possessive form of each underlined noun.

1.	the drawers of the desk	the desk's drawers
2.	the dreams of a man	the man's dreams
3.	the barks of a dog	the dog's barks
4.	the leaves of a tree	the tree's leaves
5.	the petals of a flower	the flower's petals
6.	the mane of a lion	the lion's mane
7.	the buzzing of a bee	the bee's buzzing
8.	the purr of a kitten	the kitten's purr