

Judaism — Passover

How is Passover celebrated?

1. At Passover, Jewish families hold a service called a Seder, which includes a special meal. Each part of this meal is symbolic. This means that it represents, or reminds people of a certain part of the Passover story.

Match up the words and phrases below. The first one has been done for you.

Matzah crackers	Sacrifice brought to the temple after Passover
Baked meatbone	The sweat and tears of the slaves
Baked egg	Joy and happiness after escaping slavery
Lettuce dipped in salt	The bitter suffering of the slaves
Bitter herbs	Freedom from slavery
Charoset	No time for the bread to rise
Wine	The mortar used by the slaves
Leaning on cushions	The lost temple

2. Draw a sketch of a family sitting down for the Passover meal.

Try to include all the features you can remember, including the Seder plate. Label each different feature which you have included.
