He uses these worksheets all the time and has absolutely no doubt that they will be as effective for you in your German lessons as they have been for him. With the template for Microsoft Word and Open Office programs you can easily construct your own worksheets. At the beginning of the week I was very, very curious to see what the worksheets were like and how I could apply them... I received the link and I am totally thrilled! These worksheets are simply amazing. In fact, I'm absolutely sure that you won't come across a better offer. As a side effect of course you also learn how to write. I find that Bernd's worksheets go excellently with Peter's learning materials. Would you like to occasionally get away from the rigid structure of the classroom and let your students work independently in small groups? Wasn't it a happy coincidence? If so, it's now in your hands ... Whether you have just introduced the accusative or are teaching about the prepositions that take the dative case, you always need to reinforce the teaching with additional practice. I practiced finding the genders of nouns with another group, showing them a few of Peter's pictures and then leaving them to practice with Bernd's worksheets. Here's an example of simple sentence structure exercises based on the topic „Eating“: So the worksheets are completely flexible! You can have your students cut up the fields (takes 2 minutes!) and you already have individual exercise cards. Your new main task in your German lessons is to foster independent learning with small groups. Bernd has unquestionably accomplished a great deal. As your pupils say sentences, you see how they correct one another, discuss the sentences and write down the correct answers. Bernd Arlandt from Berlin thinks exactly that! Bernd puts his heart and soul into teaching German, and I have always envied his dedication and the adjoining affection from his students. If you already know me or have perhaps bought products from me before, you will know that 27 Euros is a fair price for this material and that you can't go wrong – why? I will use them lots and I'm absolutely convinced that my pupils will also love them. After thorough quality checks, the school principle was so impressed that he bought all of Bernd's material without hesitation and for a very fair price! For what? The worksheets are excellent for the active group work that we do, which trains our pupils in communication in a foreign language. Well, he didn't need to tell me twice. Free online exercises to practice the application of grammar rules for both beginners and advanced learners. Well, it is. It's completely apparent that teaching material capable of meeting such needs don't grow on trees. When searching for new genius products, my old colleague immediately occurred to me! I called him up and made the suggestion of putting all of his material on my website to make it available worldwide and to earn himself something that he deserves – and Bernd was immediately excited! „I think it's a great idea“, he said, „I'm in!“ You can only begin to imagine the amount of time and effort Bernd has put into these worksheets and it will become clear to you how much energy has been put into the whole project when you see them.

Because of the table-structure arrangement the tasks can be cut up as you like to be used as ACTION CARDS The cut-outs go over your students' German learning again! :) Don't fancy the cut-outs? You need more than the exercises that are provided with your old textbooks. So he sat himself down at the computer ... Over the years, Bernd has finally produced his own German grammar worksheets after testing again and again what does work and what doesn't work, until in the end he had accumulated several folders of work that had proven themselves in daily teaching practice. Everything is immediately organized for you clearly on your computer, so you can find whatever it is you're looking for INSTANTLY The easy hyperlink structure takes you to the exact worksheet you're looking for with only a simply click. I can happily extend my recommendation for Bernd's Worksheets as well as Peter's learning materials. I shall tell you more about Bernd's German worksheets right away. In the multiple choice format, you will be provided up to four answer choices; you are required to choose the correct answer, who appreciate the fact that German worksheets have to offer immediately applicable, realistic and amusing phrases. There is no need to look up words in a dictionary because you already have both texts (English and German) in every exercise. I will also try out the idea of using small work groups. All the exercises can be downloaded as a PDF and printed out. Brigitte Kahn from Long Island, USA Hello Peter, With this package, Bernd has really hit the jackpot. You can copy the worksheets as many times as you like and hand them out to all your students. The purpose of this exercise is to learn how to pronounce and speak the numbers in German. I also think that the small specific learning steps are important as you can target particular areas. In a lot of language schools (although by no means in all, as I unfortunately had to experience myself!) there are perhaps some shelves with different German grammar worksheets and German teaching materials on them, but the stuff is usually pretty unorganised. 90 percent of the time is used for an oral language training. It would be an endless story of positive tales. For example, why you have to use dative and not accusative. For example, you can practice the Perfect tense with just weak verbs, then only with strong verbs and finally practice mixing both together. Now for some advice: Take care that your students don't want to simply fill in the gaps. Many thanks for the many interesting materials and inspiration in the learning package from Bernd's Worksheets.
