

REMEMBER: *Every nation on earth has its own folk songs.
Folk songs are old and nobody really knows who wrote them.*

Draw a picture of one of Chula's favorite things:

"You know, those black and white things that stand around and say moo." (

CIRCLE THE ANSWER

Many folk songs are written about:

M U D

W A T E R or R I V E R S

C A R S

P E N C I L S

Some words are made by putting two smaller words together:

C O W + B O Y = COWBOY

Do you think Jollip likes cowboy songs?

Y E S

N O

DON'T FORGET THE BOOMBOX CLASSROOM CONTEST!!

Draw a picture of what you think Chula looks like and send it to us. We'll post the drawings on our website, and our judges will choose the ones that look most like Chula. Be sure to put your name on your picture and send us your email.

This program was made possible by the generous support of the New Mexico Department of Tourism.

