Starfish Text FeaturesStarfish Text FeaturesYour students will demonstrate their understanding of nonfiction text features, such as caption, diagram, and heading, with this helpful vocabulary worksheet.2nd gradeReading & Writing Brought to you by National Geographic Explorer Magazine National Geographic's Explorer Magazine is a not-for-profit K-5 classroom resource that helps build vocabulary, non-fiction reading skills, and science knowledge. All subscriptions include print issues access to a digital suite of resources — teacher's guides, digital magazine, projectables — and classroom poster. Table of contents, glossary, caption, headings—The Mailbox® has the reading resources you need to help kids understand the text features found in informational and nonfiction text. Check out our worksheets, centers, games, displays, and songs. Your students will find out that features like images, charts, and diagrams add information that the text alone doesn't provide. Where can you take reading comprehension a step further? It's at www.themailbox.com. Looking for a great way to engage and teach students all about nonfiction text features? These fun and free worksheets help students interact with the text deeper as they begin to understand the importance of the various nonfiction text features.>>> Don't forget to check out the FULL bundle of year long nonfiction text task cards and more here.
