Top-notch students can move to regular double lines as they Lists. Provide practice at each stage To complement our handwriting curriculum, teachers are encouraged to use the activities of A Click Away, the Integrated Printing and Digital Solution, and A+ Worksheet Maker to provide children with additional writing practice. This is the only worksheet manufacturer that allows you to use the unique and easy-to-write font without tears for the success of letter formation. For the success of handwriting, use these three instructional stages to create appropriate worksheets for students. Stage 1: Direction instruction The child watches as the teacher writes and then imitates. For example, create a worksheet using My Shift, your turn. Stage 2: Guided Practice The child looks at the completed model of a letter, word, or phrase and copies it to match the model. Use guided practice as an opportunity to practice spelling words. Stage 3: Independent Practice The child writes unans helplessly, without a demonstration or model. For example, create a spreadsheet in which children produce sentences using given vocabulary words. Writing through the curriculum with kindergarten and first grade worksheets Reinforce good handwriting habits in all subjects!
